

For this project, we minted the sensor box required on a 2 H bar.

Where the labeling bot here is an end effector that can be manipulated along the height of the specola following the 2 H bar.

Belts, pulleys, and stepper motors will be used to drive the robot through the sliders as indicated below.

The box contains the housing for light and sensors

